

---

The following is a selected list of fotonovelas produced by our team over the last 25 years:

- Do it for Them - Hazlo Por Ellos – 2008. Centers for Disease Prevention and Control. (A bilingual fotonovela/revista for the National Diabetes Education Project.)
- ¡Caminemos! 2006. University of California at Los Angeles – Department of Geriatrics. (A bilingual fotonovela for Hispanic seniors on walking for better health.)
- It Happens & . Don't be a Fool. 2004. New Mexico Department of Health – Family Planning Department. (Two teen-produced fotonovelas on family planning developed and produced by teens for teens.)
- “Debes Saber – You Need to Know.” 2000. New Mexico Department of Health – Breast and Cervical Cancer Program. A mammography social marketing campaign for Hispanic/Latina women that resulted in a 300% increase in mammography among the primary audience. Debes Saber was the title of the bilingual magazine- the lead print piece for the campaign.
- ¡Start Walking - A Caminar! 2003. New Mexico Department of Health – Diabetes Prevention and Control Program. Social marketing publications for a campaign to encourage walking among Latinas living in Southern New Mexico
- Knowledge is Power/¡Saber es Poder! 1999. New Mexico Department of Education. (A bilingual fotonovela and educational video for parents on their rights under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.)
- What is Happening to Abuelito? and Together We Can Do it. 1999. Alzheimer's Association - Chicago, Illinois. (Two bilingual fotonovelas for families on how to care for family members with Alzheimer's Disease.)
- Heads Up, Bro. 1998. Hands Across Cultures. Española, New Mexico. (A teen-produced fotonovela and poster for teens by teens on alcohol abuse prevention.)
- ¡El Plomo! 1997. Washington Department of Health – Office of Toxic Substances. Olympia, Washington. (A Spanish language fotonovela on lead poisoning prevention.)
- Los Montoya Aprenden... 1995. New Mexico Department of Health – Diabetes Prevention and Control Program. (A photo-pamphlet series on diabetes.)
- ¡Cuidado con los Pesticidas! 1995. Washington State Department of Health. Olympia, Washington. (A Spanish language fotonovela on pesticides.)
- Fotonovela – Tabloid Series. 1992-1996. Washington State Department of Health. Olympia, Washington. (Produced a series of six fotonovelas tabloids for migrant workers in Spanish on STD/HIV Prevention.)
- Salvar Vidas. 1993. American Heart Association. San Diego, California.

- La Esperanza del Valle. 1993. Novela Health Education and University of Washington. Seattle, Washington. (Production of fotonovela on drug abuse prevention.)
- Look Who's Smoking Too. 1992. ETR Associates. Tobacco Control Clearinghouse. Santa Cruz, California (A photo-pamphlet series on second hand smoke.)
- What is Sexual Harassment? 1992. ETR Associates. Santa Cruz, California (A photo-pamphlet series for high school students on sexual harassment.)
- Así es la Vida. 1990. California AIDS Clearinghouse. Santa Cruz, California.
- I Ain't Down for Being Called Daddy. 1990. ETR Associates. Santa Cruz, California. (A photo-tabloid series of three tabloids for teen pregnancy prevention efforts.)
- Saturday Night Special. 1989. California AIDS Clearinghouse. Santa Cruz, California.
- Amigos y Amantes. 1989. California AIDS Clearinghouse. Santa Cruz, California.
- Un Cariño Especial. 1988. La Hacienda Foster Care Center. Tucson, Arizona.
- Yolanda, Manuel y Familia. 1988. Pinal County Health Department. Florence, Arizona. (A Spanish language fotonovela on the different forms of birth control.)
- La Gordura No Dura. 1986. National Diabetes Education and Research Foundation. (A Spanish language fotonovela on diabetes management.)
- Leer es Poder. 1985. Tucson Public Library. (A Spanish language fotonovela promoting the use of the Tucson Public Library.)
- Dolores y Esperanza. 1983. National Arthritis Foundation. (A Spanish language fotonovela educating people about arthritis self-management tools.)